Dear Fernando Andres Polanco, PhD

Please find attached an electronic version of our manuscript entitled: Development and validation of an instrument to evaluate secondary students' interest in science. The manuscript only contains material that has not been published or submitted elsewhere. We confirm that the co-authors of the manuscript agree with the content of our manuscript and know that it has been submitted for publication in Interamerican Journal of Psychology. We would greatly appreciate the consideration of our manuscript for publication.

Sincerely yours,

Verónica Reyes Meza [on behalf of all coauthors]
